

DARTMOUTH LAWYERS SKI BRECKENRIDGE

February 16-19, 2007

<http://www.dlainbreck.com>

The DARTMOUTH LAWYERS ASSOCIATION's 20th ANNUAL MIDWINTER CLE AND SKI will convene at BRECKENRIDGE. Breckenridge boasts the highest lift served terrain in North America and has a variety of runs which will satisfy and/or challenge skiers of all abilities. The historic town of Breckenridge boasts art galleries, bars, restaurants, bookstores, ski sales/rental shops, and all sorts of other establishments which will appeal to skiers and non-skiers alike.

The resort which will be hosting our meeting is the GREAT DIVIDE LODGE (<http://www.greatdividelodge.com>) near the base of the Beaver Run Lift. The GREAT DIVIDE LODGE is holding a block of 35 rooms for the meeting until December 15, 2006 at 11:59PM Mountain Time. To make your room reservations, call 888-525-1787 and identify yourself as part of the Dartmouth Lawyers Association's group and Group Code BC2CDLA. If you have any requests for special room arrangements, you need to make them at the time of your call. The Dartmouth Lawyers Association has also negotiated discounted rates at the Mountain Thunder Lodge (<http://www.mountainthunderlodge.com> and about a 5 minute shuttle ride from the Great Divide Lodge) and the Village at Breckenridge (<http://villageatbreckenridge.com> and about a 5 minute walk from the Great Divide Lodge). The reserved room block is only at the Great Divide Lodge and lodging at the other facilities will be on a space available basis. The negotiated rates for all of the lodging options (which include parking) are as follows:

The topic for this year's CLE program is "THE FIRST AMENDMENT - PROTECTION OF FREEDOMS BOTH REVERED AND ABHORRED". As before, CLE credit will be available. To date, the speakers who have been lined up include:

Michael Kerry Burke, who is the general counsel for Mantra Films, Inc., which is the producer of Girls Gone Wild and Guys Gone Wild videos.

Dan Abrahamson, who is a leading national expert on first amendment rights and drug policy/reform in the United States and the holder of an undergrad degree from Yale, a Master's from Oxford, and a law degree from NYU.

Judd Golden, a practicing attorney and Chair of the Boulder County, Colorado Chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union

If you have any recommendations for or wish to serve as a speaker or help with the program, contact the meeting coordinator, Richard L. Merrill '73, at Fabio & Merrill, Twelve Greenway Plaza, Suite 101, Houston, Texas 77046-1208, Tel. No.: 713-961-0408, Fax No.: 713-961-2934, E-mail: richard@dlainbreck.com.

As in years past, there will be a registration fee to cover costs associated with the program and functions, including the receptions, dinner, and final banquet. The fee will be $475.00 for DLA members and participants (Classes of 1996 and earlier), $375.00 for DLA members and participants (Classes of 1997 and later), $200.00 for spouses/guests/children 21 and older, $150.00 for children between 13 and 20, $75.00 for children between 4 and 12, and free for children under 4. Payment can be made by credit card or by check. If paying by check, you are entitled to a cash discount of 3.00% of the total amount of your registration fee, so please calculate that discount when you make your payment. The registration fee needs to be received on or before January 15, 2007.

Thanks to the efforts of Tsan Abrahamson '85, this year's event also has its own website, <http://www.dlainbreck.com>, where you can make your reservations, pay your registration fees, and keep up to date with information regarding the meeting.

If you have attended one or more of our midwinter meetings in the past, we look forward to seeing you again. If you have never attended, then 2007 will be a good year to start. We also encourage you to bring spouses, children, grandchildren, relatives, significant others, friends, business acquaintances, and any other people you know who might enjoy some quality time in Breckenridge.
